Professional Summary

With over 15 years of multidisciplinary experience spanning UX strategy, enterprise architecture, and multimedia design, I am a strategic leader who approaches every project with an ownership mindset. Currently, as a Senior UX Consultant at EY, I actively partner with executive leadership to drive the firm's technological growth and operational efficiency. I specialize in architecting highly scalable, enterprise-ready SharePoint platforms and engineering custom AI workflow agents within Copilot and Replit environments to solve complex business challenges.

My background goes far beyond traditional UX; it is deeply rooted in directing cross-functional teams and managing global client portfolios across the tech, FMCG, and FMEG sectors. I have built a strong track record of seamlessly bridging the gap between high-level business strategy and hands-on execution. Whether I am steering global stakeholder communications, mentoring and leading multidisciplinary design teams, or integrating next-generation AI solutions, I operate not just as a contributor, but as a dedicated business partner invested in the long-term success, scale, and innovation of the organization.
